BG Thomas Richardson, USA

Commander, DSCC

Brigadier General Thomas J. Richardson, USA, assumed Command of Defense Supply Center Columbus on Aug. 6, 2009.

As DSCC's Commander, General Richardson directs the efforts of more than 3,000 associates, at 53 locations worldwide, who perform the functions of purchasing material, monitoring inventory levels, maintaining technical data, and assuring quality conformance of more than 2 million spare and repair parts used by more than 24,000 military units and civilian federal agencies. In 2009, DSCC projected sales of $3.7 billion for FY09 with procurements of $2.7 billion.

Prior to coming to DSCC, General Richardson was director for Logistics, Engineering and Security Assistance, Headquarters, United States Pacific Command, Camp H.M. Smith, Hawaii.

Brigadier General Richardson began his Army career with a commission in the Quartermaster Corps upon graduation from Stephen F. Austin University, Texas in 1980. He is a graduate of the Army Quartermaster Basic and Advanced courses, Combined Arms and Services Staff School, Army Command and General Staff College, and the Industrial College of the Armed Forces. He holds a bachelor's degree in Business Administration and master's degrees in Military Science and Strategic Resource Management.

General Richardson has served in command and staff positions throughout his career. These include Commander, Alpha Company, 64th Forward Support Battalion, Fort Carson, Colo.; Commander, 296th Forward Support Battalion, 3rd Brigade, 2nd Infantry Division, Fort Lewis, Wash.; Commander, 64th Corps Support Group, Iraq, and Executive Officer to the Deputy Commanding General, Army Materiel Command, Fort Belvoir, Va.

His awards include the Defense Superior Service Medal (1st Oak Leaf Cluster), Legion of Merit (1st Oak Leaf Cluster), Bronze Star Medal, Meritorious Service Medal (3rd Oak Leaf Cluster), Army Commendation Medal (2nd Oak Leaf Cluster), Army Achievement Medal, and the Parachutist Badge.
